

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of the Brewer Land Trust. Any person(s), trust, estate, or company that contributes in cash or in kind, consistent with the policies of the Brewer Land Trust, is entitled to become a member.

The Corporation is formed for the purposes of cooperatively protecting and preserving the natural and scenic resources of the City of Brewer and State of Maine, of encouraging open space and green areas, increasing public awareness and understanding of the importance of conservation of natural resources and the interrelationships that exist amongst them, and of fostering a trail system connected to public areas and regional trails with all of the above for the enjoyment and benefit of present and future generations.

Yes! I want to be involved by enrolling with my tax deductible gift.
