- One-on-one counseling
- Training workshops and networking opportunities, all designed to help prepare businesses to successfully compete for government market opportunities.
- Registrations, market research, understanding the solicitation process and contract requirements.
- Statewide services, with offices located throughout the state.
- The majority of the services are provided at no cost to our clients.*

* PTAC does charge a nominal fee for our bid match service and a fee may be charged for certain special services, workshops and networking events to help defray the costs incurred in providing these services.
