Maine Quality Centers

Program Snapshot

The Maine Quality Centers provide customized workforce training grants for Maine employers interested in providing training for new or current employees.

These education and training programs are coordinated and delivered through Maine's seven community colleges. MQC's staff will work with you to design a program that delivers the training you need when you need it and where you need it.

- Grants to help cover the cost of customized training for workers or recruits.
- Incumbent worker training.
- Recruitment assistance—advertising and screening.
- Pre-hire training for potential hires.
- Post-hire training for new hires.
- Targeted training for industry certifications.
- Customized training, consultation, and curriculum.
- Flexible scheduling—days, evenings, weekends.
- Classes delivered at your worksite or on campus.
- The Maine Quality Centers program also administers the MCCS Put ME to Work program, which provides businesses and industry associations with half the start-up costs to create training programs for high-wage jobs. Participating employers must agree to hire successful program graduates and pay them at least $2.50 above minimum wage, or at or above the median wage for that occupation.
