TITLE: RESOLVE, RECOGNIZE BREWER WATER DEPARTMENT
FOR EARNING THE TITLE OF BEST TASTING
WATER IN THE STATE

Filed January 15, 2020

By Jerry Goss

WHEREAS, The Maine Rural Water Association's 39th annual conference was held on December 12, 2019 and the highlight of that event is the contest to determine Maine's best tasting water; and

WHEREAS, the City of Brewer Water Department entered that contest and not only made it into the final round but attained the award for Maine's Best Tasting Water; and

WHEREAS, the judges for the event stated that the Brewer water "just tasted the best overall, it had a really clean taste. Brewer, even for being a treated system, you could not taste the chlorine. Sometimes water can feel flat, but I think it had some minerals in it that gives it a distinct flavor profile"; and

WHEREAS, a sample of Brewer's water will be presented by Rodney Butler, Superintendent, as Maine's entry in the National Taste Test, to be held in February in Washington, D.C.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Brewer City Council, on behalf of the Citizens of Brewer, herewith extends its congratulations to the Brewer Water Department and recognizes and appreciates their outstanding efforts to provide our community with the best tasting water in the State of Maine.
