Maine Made Program

Program Snapshot

Provides marketing link between Maine producers of consumer goods and the consumer.

The Maine Made Program, created over thirty years ago by the Maine Legislature, is the marketing link between Maine producers of consumer goods and the consumer. By offering trade show support, technical assistance, and various promotional activities through membership, Maine artisans and makers are able to explore new markets and expand their entrepreneurial pursuits.

The Maine Made logo, available for member usage, is recognized nationally as representing high quality products created by reliable producers.
